Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 254, “[w]henver a mistake in a patent, incurred through the fault of the Patent and Trademark Office, is clearly disclosed by the records of the Office, the Director may issue a certificate of correction stating the fact and nature of such mistake, under seal, without charge, to be recorded in the records of patents.” Nearly all of the above-referenced typographical errors were not present in the claims included in the preliminary amendment filed April 26, 2002, (marked as received in OIPE on May 7, 2002), which claims were allowed on December 17, 2003. A copy of the preliminary amendment, as retrieved from Public PAIR, is attached hereto. Accordingly, the Patent Owner respectfully submits that at least some of the errors were incurred through the fault of the Patent and Trademark Office and requests that the Director issue a certificate of correction stating the fact and nature of such mistake, under seal, without charge, to be recorded in the records of patents.

The errors now sought to be corrected are typographical errors, the correction of which is not believed to involve new matter or require reexamination.
